May 13, 1999

Apogee Enterprises, Inc. announced today that it has completed the sale of the stock of its large-scale domestic curtainwall business, Harmon Ltd.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 13 /PRNewswire/ -- Apogee Enterprises, Inc. (Nasdaq: APOG) announced today that it has completed the sale of the stock of its large-scale domestic curtainwall business, Harmon Ltd., to CH Holdings, Inc., a private company located in St. Louis, Missouri.

Harmon Ltd. is the nation's largest designer and installer of curtainwall and window systems for nonresidential construction. In fiscal 1999, Harmon Ltd. generated revenues of approximately $85 million. By comparison, Apogee reported fiscal 1999 consolidated net sales of approximately $793 million, which excluded the following discontinued operations: domestic and international curtainwall operations, and the Norment detention & security unit.

Apogee Enterprises, Inc. is a world leader in technologies involving the design and development of value-added glass products, services and systems. Organized in two business segments, the Glass Technologies businesses are leaders primarily in architectural glass and high-end glass coatings for the electronics markets, while the Glass Services businesses are leaders in replacement auto glass and building glass services. Headquartered in Minneapolis, the company's stock is traded on the Nasdaq Stock Market under the symbol APOG.
